STAT

I regret that I had to leave [redacted] without seeing you, but I was recalled very hurriedly and was not quite sure just when you would come in. Since I am in Washington, I shall take up some of the points we discussed and shall advise you through [redacted]. In case you have any more information, you can send it [redacted] and I shall be delighted to receive it.

If I get to [redacted] again, I shall certainly make every effort to see you, and, if you come to Washington, I wish you would be sure to advise me.

With best wishes, believe me,

Sincerely,

STAT
